

Our system is based on fully convolution neural network. In nodule detection, 2D convolution network is used to find lung nodule candidates. We train multiple 3D CNNs with different settings to reduce the false positive and then average them.

Due to the intellectual property associated with our system, additional details cannot be released at this point.

Contact: chenjx1005@gmail.com